

Public Sessions for Amendment C90

South Gippsland Shire Council is urging community members to attend public sessions in relation for Amendment C90 to the South Gippsland Planning Scheme.

Amendment C90 will improve the South Gippsland Planning Scheme's guidance of development and land use over the next 20-30 years.

Public sessions are being held at the following locations:

- Wednesday 29 November from 11.00am to 5.00pm at the Meeniyan Hall Supper Room
- Thursday 30 November from 1.00pm to 5.00pm at the Fish Creek Memorial Hall Supper Room
- Tuesday 5 December from 2.00pm to 5.00pm at the Darlimurla Hall
- Wednesday 6 December from 11.00am to 5.00pm at the Kongwak Hall
- Thursday 7 December from 4.00pm to 8.00pm at Council Chambers, Leongatha
- Tuesday 12 December from 2.00pm to 5.00pm at the Korumburra Library Meeting Room
- Wednesday 13 December from 11.00am to 1.30pm at the Nyora Public Hall Meeting Room
- Wednesday 13 December from 4.00pm to 8.00pm at the Tooradin Hall

South Gippsland Shire Council's Manager Planning Paul Stampton said many residents had been in touch in regards to the amendment.

"There has been a lot of community interest in Amendment C90 and how this will potentially affect some land owners.

"We suggest that community members book a time at our public sessions so they have an opportunity to speak with our Strategic Planning team," said Mr Stampton.
