

Music for the People 2018

Mossvale Park will again be the venue for “Music for the People” one of the longest running and best value music South Gippsland events, on Sunday 25 February 2018.

Music for the People has been a favourite music event for South Gippsland and celebrates its 50th anniversary in 2018. To celebrate this milestone concert, Council is thrilled to announce The Royal Australian Navy Band as the special guests in 2018.

Lieutenant Andrew Stokes, Officer in Charge, will lead the 36 piece concert band and the 16 piece big band in a variety of music including marches, popular classics, show tunes and music from the big band era.

Local bands including the South Gippsland Shire Brass Band, South Gippsland Concert Band and the Wonthaggi Citizens Band will also be performing. The music commences at 11am.

Patrons are encouraged to nestle in the shade of the trees with their own chairs, picnic rug, packed lunch and drinks while they enjoy the show. The Leongatha Lions Club provides seating and afternoon tea in a large marquee for senior citizens. Bookings for this service can be made by contacting 5662 3338.

A limited selection of food and drink vendors will be at the park however patrons are reminded that there are no ATM facilities available.

South Gippsland Shire Council sponsors the Music for the People concert which is operated by a host of volunteers in partnership with Council staff. Entrance fees are $15 per person, $10 Concession. Companion Card holders and children under 12 enter free.
