A fun way to learn

Supported by Council's Rural Access Project, the young people at Yooralla are holding a Pizza and Trivia night at the Leongatha Salvation Army Café this Friday.

"While this will be a night of food and fun, it is a great opportunity for the group to practice budgeting, cooking, event management and logistics in a fun and social way," commented Council's Rural Access Project Officer, Marge Arnup. "They are planning to run several events like this throughout the year."

The group has also been learning about the upcoming Respectful Relationships Program. Separate groups for men and women will be hosted in coming weeks to learn about individual rights and healthy relationships, how to prevent violence and abuse; and where to get further information.

This program is open to people 18+ with an intellectual disability residing in the South Gippsland & Bass Coast areas and is a prevention of violence and abuse strategy.

For further information about these events or to register your interest, please contact Marge Arnup on 5662 9376.
