Clause 51 of South Gippsland Shire Council's General Local Law states:

51. Livestock on roads

- (1) Without a permit a person who owns or is in charge of livestock must not cause or allow the droving or grazing of the livestock on a road for which Council is the relevant road authority.
- (2) In subclause (1)
 - (a) "droving" means an individual driving of livestock, from one location to another, for the purpose of changing their grazing area or moving livestock from their grazing areas to a location for the purposes of sale or from a sale location to a grazing area but does not include movement of livestock. It also includes mere driving of livestock in or through the municipal district for the purpose of or including supplementing their feeding or taking them from or to a market; and
 - (b) "grazing" means causing livestock to enter and remain on a road for the purpose of grazing.
- (3) Subclause (1) does not apply to the movement of livestock from one property to another within the municipal district both of which are occupied by the owner of the livestock.
