

SOUTH GIPPSLAND SHIRE COUNCIL Spotlight on Nyora

2016 Population

Nyora 1,527
Median Age 41
South Gippsland 28,936

South Gippsland
Shire Council

Population by Gender

48%

52%

Population Growth 1911 - 2036

Nyora's population remained stable between 1911 and 1961, then doubled in the years 1960 to 2006 and increased further to 2011.

Employment

There are 720 people in the workforce with 428 people employed full time. The proportion of people in full time employment is higher than other towns in South Gippsland.

Diversity

144 of Nyora's residents were born overseas. Most overseas born residents come from the United Kingdom and Ireland.

20 households speak a language other than English

Top languages other than English spoken at home:

- Mandarin
- Serbian
- Croatian
- German
- Greek
- Italian

Most people moving to Nyora in the past five years came from other parts of Victoria. The most common Victorian places include the Shires of Casey, Frankston, Mornington Peninsula and Yarra Ranges.

Education

A larger proportion of children attend Government Primary Schools than Victoria.

468 people in Nyora attended an educational insitution.

Car Ownership

1 percent of households in Nyora do not own motor vehicle.

21.2 percent of households have one motor vehicle.

36 percent of households have two motor vehicles.

20 percent of households have three or more motor vehicles.

Income

The individual weekly income is higher than in South Gippsland.

Mortgage repayments and weekly rents are higher in Nyora than South Gippsland.

A higher proportion of high income households in Nyora than South Gippsland.

Care

A larger proportion of people in Nyora provided unpaid care for children other than in South Gippsland.

A larger proportion of people provided unpaid assistance to people with a disability, reflecting the larger proportion of people in the Nyora population needing assistance due to disability.

Housing

There are 575 dwellings in Nyora with 92 per cent occupied.

91.5 percent of houses are occupied compared with South Gippsland's 74 percent.

There is a greater proportion of couples with children and one parent families in Nyora than South Gippsland

Key Points in History

The township of Nyora was procalmed in 1886.

Nyora station became a junction stop to change trains to the Bass Valley dairy towns in 1910.

TOP 5

The top five industries of employment include:

- Dairy Cattle Farming
- Supermarket and Grocery Stores
- Plumbing Services
- Site Preparation Services
- Primary Education