Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
ACHARDLE ROAD	This road runs through the property known as "ACHARDLE". The property was given its name by Mr. James William Campbell, who first selected the land and settled here in the locality of Mardan.		2002	Council	Yes
ADAMS LANE	The Adams family were pioneers that originally settled in Poowong North in early 1900. These pioneers established the current lane on the ground, and their descendants still reside on the surrounding land.		2008	Council	No
ASHWORTH LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
ASHWORTH LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2003	Council	Yes
BAILEY LANE	Named in recognition of Frank Bailey, painter and photographer who lived adjacent to the lane.		2004	Council	Yes
BAPTIST LANE	The lane is at the rear of the Baptist Church.		2007	Council	Yes
BELLVIEW LANE	The road has been known locally as Bellview Lane for a number of years and provides the access point for the Bellview Creek Reservoir.		2000	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
BENNETT LANE	Named in recognition of Dr. George Frederick Bennett, who moved to Mirboo North in 1930. After selling his practice in Shepparton and then purchasing the practice in Mirboo North from Dr Webb, Dr Bennett then went on to establish the first Bush Nursing Hospital in Mirboo North on the corner of Balook Street and Main St (now Ridgway). After many meetings and fundraising, the first patient was admitted on 25 March 1931 and was officially opened by Lady Irvine on 1 April 1931. The hospital had seven beds and an operating theatre and all essential appliances. The premises still stands today at 4 Ridgway. The unnamed laneway in question was used by Dr Bennett and his family to enter the hospital premises. He was also instrumental in the building of the new hospital in Brennan Street in 1938, before moving to a new practise in Leongatha in 1941. His son Alex Bennett was born in Mirboo North and followed in his father's footsteps as a doctor in Leongatha whom also has a street named after him in recognition of the hard work and dedication served to the community.		2000	Council	Yes
BERRYMAN LANE	Named in recognition of George Berryman, a former dairy inspector who lived nearby.		2004	Council	Yes
BIGELOW LANE	Named in recognition of the Bigelow family who were the very first people to open the Loch Hardware Store.		2010	Council	Yes
BLACKMAN LANE	Named in recognition of the Blackman family. Mr Neil Blackman was a former Council employee with Woorayl Shire and Mrs Blackman was a stalwart worker for the RSL Women's Auxiliary.		2004	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
BLANTON LANE	Named in recognition of Mr. William Blanton who was the owner of the early General Store and a very prominent citizen supporting the development of the Township of Toora.		2010	Council	Yes
BOSTON PLACE	Named in recognition of the Boston family. Who established the early Garage business and was a Coach Builder in Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
BOWCHER LANE	Named in recognition of the Bowcher family who have owned adjoining land to this lane since 1892.		2000	Council	Yes
BROUGHTON PLACE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2000	Council	Yes
BRUHN LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra and a local builder.		2007	Council	Yes
BRYDONS ROAD	Named in recognition of the Brydon family who were past land owners of surrounding properties to this road. The road provides access to the Leongatha Reservoirs and mainly used by South Gippsland Water as access to the Reservoirs.		2013	Council	Yes
BUCKLEY STREET	Named in recognition of Mrs. Fraser (nee - Buckley). The Fraser family were pioneers that settled in Toora in the 1880's on the land running west of Grip Road and adjoining the South Gippsland Highway. In 1883 Mr James Fraser created a 21 Lot subdivision of building blocks to be auctioned and drew up plans for a town, hoping that the railway would pass through this town (called Hazelknowe). The 2 streets of the town were named 'Fraser Street' and 'Buckley Street' (Mrs Fraser's maiden name). The railway did not pass through Fraser's town and therefore this subdivision remained isolated from what eventually became the current Toora Township.		2008	Council	Yes
BUNN LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2000	Council	Yes
CARR AVENUE	Named in recognition of the first medical practitioner in Leongatha and District, Dr Michael Carr who held land in the vicinity to the road.		2001	Council	Yes
CASHS LANE	Named in recognition of the adjoining Cash's clothing company.		2004	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
CHAFFEY LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2000	Council	Yes
CHERRY LANE	Named in recognition of well-known Leongatha family who lived adjacent to the lane.		2004	Council	Yes
CORMACK LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2000	Council	Yes
COYNE LANE	Named in recognition of the first parish priest of St Laurence's Catholic Church, Peter Coyne.		2004	Council	Yes
CURNICK LANE	Curnick Lane is part of the original Coast road, which extends along the southern boundary of the Curnick family's farm. The Curnicks bought this land back in the 1880's.		2000	Council	Yes
CURTIS ROAD
DAFF STREET	Named in recognition of Mr William Daff who lived and farmed in Welshpool and was a "Boar War Veteran" and was the "Crown Land Bailiff" for Snake Island, Binginwarri, Wonyip, Hedley and surrounds from 1909 to 1930's. He and his wife raised 4 children, 3 of whom settled to raise their families in the area.		2011	Council	Yes
DESSENTS ROAD	The Dessents have owned the land surrounding this road since 1956. The road (including "GIBBETT RD" use to be part of the main through road from Foster to Port Franklin and was linked by a bridge over Bennison Creek. The bridge was removed many years ago when the new main road (Lower Franklin Road) was constructed, thus leaving 2 sections of road.		2004	Council	Yes
DEVLIN PLACE	Named in recognition of the Devlin family. The Devlins managed a Hairdresser's and a Grocery shop fronting Mine Road in Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
DEWAR LANE	Named in recognition of former resident, E. Dewar.		2004	Council	Yes
DODD LANE	Named in recognition of the Dodd family, who kept a large boarding house adjacent.		2004	Council	Yes
DR WOOD LANE	Named in recognition of Dr F.A. Wood, who practised in Leongatha from 1921-1941, whose property adjoined.		2004	Council	Yes
DUVANEL LANE	Family name of early resident and Police Constable.		2007	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
EDNEY LANE	Named in recognition of a well known Leongatha garage family.		2004	Council	Yes
FALCONER LANE
FINDLAY ROAD	Named in recognition of the Findlay family who lived on a property on this road for many years.		2002	Council	Yes
FISHER CLOSE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra, who established a saw mill where the lane is situated.		2007	Council	Yes
FISK LANE	Named in recognition of Herbert Fisk, former Woorayl Shire ranger, whose property adjoined the lane.		2004	Council	Yes
FRANKCOM ROAD	Named in recognition of Mr Norman Frankcom who was born in Stony Creek on the 26th September 1898, and was the son of Albert Frankcom of Stony Creek, South Gippsland. He enlisted in World War One on the 14th January 1918, aged 19 years old and was killed in action. Occupation listed as farmhand and marital status as single.	☑	2011	Council	Yes
GAUDION LANE	Named in recognition of the Gaudion family.		2004	Council	Yes
GIBBETT ROAD	Named in recognition of Mr Alfred Gibbett who was an original settler in the 1870/1880's and owned the land around the road. The road in question used to be part of the main through road from Foster to Port Franklin and was linked by a bridge over Bennison Creek. The bridge was removed many years ago when the new main road (Lower Franklin Road) was constructed, thus leaving two sections of road as primary access to properties.		2004	Council	Yes
GOSTELOW LANE	Named in recognition of a well known Leongatha family whose house abutted this lane. The home was later used as 'Pennygreen', a reception and catering establishment which was destroyed by fire in the 1970's.		2004	Council	Yes
GOURLEY LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
GRAND RIDGE EAST
GREEN HILLS ROAD	The original property that surrounded this road in the locality of Buffalo was called Green Hills.		2006	Council	Yes
GREEN VALLEY RISE	Green Valley represents the adjoining country side of Korumburra.		2012	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
HANCOCK LANE	Family name of early residents.		2007	Council	Yes
HARLAND LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
HARMONY LANE
HEDGELEY DENE COURT	The property which abuts this unnamed road was originally called Hedgeley Dean, by the Green family who previously owned the property. Before moving to Fish Creek from Melbourne the family's grandmother Green milked cows on a property in Malvern, Melbourne also named Hedgeley Dean. Hedgeley Dene Gardens is now a public open space in the suburb of Malvern East in Melbourne.		2005	Council	Yes
HELMS ROAD	Named in recognition of Mr Arnold Helms who purchased Crown Allotment 72B in 1898, near this road and is the father of Rupert and Reginald. Reginald was born in Brunswick, Melbourne on the 28th August 1923 and enlisted in World War Two on the 30th January 1942 in Buffalo, Victoria. Occupation listed as farm hand and served in the 130 Australian General Transport. He was discharged on the 20th November 1944. Rupert was born in Leongatha on the 17th February 1919 and enlisted in World War Two on 1st August 1940, serving as a Flight Sergeant with RAAF. He was discharged on 13th November 1945.		2000	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
HENNESSY COURT	Named in recognition of Hugh Hennessy Sr. The Hennessy family, consisting of three sons and a daughter, originally came from Daylesford in the early 1900's, buying land on the outskirts of the Bena Township which adjoins the area of the unnamed laneway. The original homestead they built still stands today. The sons of Hugh Hennessy Sr, Hugh Jr, David and Jim, all continued to live in the district. Hugh Jr took over the family farm, while David and Jim bought nearby land. The home farm stayed in the family for over sixty years until sold in 1957. The Hennessy's were well known as 'top farmers' in the district. In later years, Hugh Jr became a Councilor for the Shire of Korumburra and presided over the opening ceremony of the new Bena Hall when it was rebuilt in 1939.		2013	Council	Yes
HOLLANDS ROAD	Named in recognition of the Holland family who were previous owners of property in close proximity of this road.		2013	Council	Yes
HOPKINS LANE	Family name of early residents.		2007	Council	Yes
HOSKING ROAD	Named in recognition of Mr Hosking who was a prominent citizen in the Jeetho area at the time of the formulation of the former Poowong & Jeetho Shire. He donated the land and built the building in which the former Poowong & Jeetho Shire was housed. The building serviced the dual purpose of Jeetho Public Hall.		2000	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
JACKS ROAD	Named in recognition of Mr Jack Helms who was born in Meeniyan on the 12th January 1917. He enlisted in World War Two on the 1st December 1939 in Laverton, Victoria. Next of kin listed as Harold Helms. Jack served as Flight Sergeant, RAAF 1 Flying Boat Repair Depot until discharged on 22nd March 1946. He was cousin to Rupert Thomas and Reginald Frank Helms.		2000	Council	Yes
JENKIN LANE	Named in recognition of Bert Jenkin, former headmaster of Leongatha Primary School between 1934-44.		2004	Council	Yes
JOLLY LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
JURATOWITCH LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2000	Council
JURYS ROAD	The name 'Jury' comes from the original Parish of Lang Lang East map and F. Jury was a landowner in the vicinity.		2001	Council	Yes
KELLS LANE	Family name of early residents and land owner in that area of the lane in Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
KNIGHTS ROAD	Named in recognition of Mr. Sid Knight who was an early settler around 1920 - 1930 and whom owned the land around the road in question.		2002	Council	Yes
LAPIN LANE	Named in recognition of Dr. Lapin, who was the local doctor in Korumburra and lived in the area.		2007	Council	Yes
LARKIN LANE	Named in recognition of the well known Larkin family, a member of whom, Eddie Larkin, operated a garage on this lane.		2004	Council	Yes
LASSETERS ROAD	Named in recognition of Mr Lasseter, who worked for Ports & Harbours and spent many years working out of Port Welshpool, installing navigational beacons through the channels in Corner Inlet. He later went in search of gold deposits through the arid regions of Australia, leading ultimately to his death in search of 'Lasseter's Reef".		2004	Council	Yes
LATTA LANE	Named in recognition of Jack Latta, who lived adjacent. Jack was an ardent support of the Leongatha Football Club.		2004	Council	Yes
LAWRENCE LANE	Named in recognition of the Lawrence Family who where Soft Drink Makers back in 1890 in Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
LEE STREET	Named in recognition of Mr Alexandra Edward Lee who was born in the Township of Welshpool in 1909. He grew up in Welshpool and worked for the railways for 24 years which took him away from Welshpool for a short time only to finally return back to Welshpool and become the Station Master. He resigned from the railways and took the role as Post Master and along with his wife raised 8 children, there are still children, grandchildren and great grand children living in Welshpool and surrounds.		2000	Council	Yes
LEWRY PLACE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
LLOYD LANE	Named in recognition of Harold Lloyd, a well known Leongatha store keeper in the 1930-40's.		2004	Council	Yes
LUDGE LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2003	Council	Yes
MACRAE LANE	Named in recognition of Matron Jean MacRae who served at the Woorayl District Memorial Hospital from 1958 to 1971. Miss MacRae obtained her double certificate in midwifery at the Woman's Hospital Melbourne, then later serving as a theatre sister at the Women's Hospital in Perth before transferring to the Children's Hospital. Then returning to Melbourne she accepted a position as head theatre sister at Jessie McPherson Hospital. Upon her retirement in June 1971, the Woorayl District Memorial Hospital Committee decided that the new geriatric unit should be named the 'Jean MacRae Wing' as a thank you for her services. In January 1972 Miss Jean MacRae passed away from ill health at the age of 62, in the hospital that she opened.		2010	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
MASON LANE	Named in recognition of the late Victor Mason. Mr Mason contributed greatly to the community of Leongatha and district as he was a member of Leongatha Waterworks Trust for many years and acted as chairman for the trust for many years. He was a competent pianist who gave his time and talents generously through playing for numerous dances and debutante sets held by the Leongatha Netball Association. Mrs Mason is an active worker in the Aged Care network through her long term association with Woorayl Lodge and earlier played an important role in the local Girl Guides Association.		2005	Council	Yes
MASONIC LANE	Named on account of the adjoining Masonic Hall.		2004	Council	Yes
MATTHEW LANE	Named in recognition of the first Presbyterian minister, which church abuts this lane.		2004	Council	Yes
MCLEOD ROAD	Named in recognition of the McLeod family, early settlers whom originally owned the surrounding land that borders this road.		2007	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
MCNAUGHTONS ROAD	Named in recognition of the McNaughton family whom purchased land at Fairbank in 1883 before moving to Kardella in 1898. Alexander and Elisabeth McNaughton were very much involved in the community of Arawata and Fairbank, the local church and Elisabeth established a home based school prior to the building of the Fairbank school. Elisabeth also supported many neighbours during childbirth, while Alex became secretary of the first Presbyterian Church to be opened at Fairbank. Originally called Rasmussens Road, a name change was called upon to avoid confusion with the other Rasmussens Road which runs off Wild Dog Valley Road.		2002	Council	Yes
MECHANICS LANE	This lane is at the rear of the site of the former Mechanics Hall in Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
MERRICKS TRACK	Named in recognition of Merrick Holgate whom farmed the surrounding land at Leongatha South.		2000	Council	Yes
MILES LANE	Named in recognition of prominent builder, A.G. Miles, whose property adjoins the lane.		2004	Council	Yes
MILFORD ROAD	This road name has always been known by locals as Milford Road since early settlement, however the gazettal was Dumbalk North - Milford Road. Council renamed the road to Milford to avoid confusion.		2000	Council	Yes
MILL ROAD	This road has always been referred to as 'Mill Road' as the old mill site was on the property abutting the road.		2000	Council	Yes
MONEY LANE	Named in recognition of Mr and Mrs Money, who kept a large boarding house adjacent.		2004	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
MOON LANE	Named in recognition of Mr. P. Moon, who moved to the district of Mirboo North in the 1930's and became a successful builder, setting up his own business and building many houses both in the town, and on rural properties. He also had many contracts with the Soldier Settlement Scheme and the Housing Commission. Mr. Moon also built the local Ambulance Station, Baromi Road Police Station, the Kindergarten and Infant Welfare Centre, Chemist Shop, and Baromi Park Senior Citizens Flats. In the 1950's Mr. Moon lived next to the lane in question and his granddaughter still lives there today.		2008	Council	Yes
MOORE LANE	Named in recognition of Mrs Elizabeth Moore and her daughter Mary, who both served in the Women's Auxiliary Air Force during World War II.	☑	2004	Council	Yes
MORRIS LANE	Named in recognition of long term local identity Harry Morris whom once owned the land bound by this road. This road formed part of the South Gippsland Highway but due to the realignment of the South Gippsland Highway through Koonwarra the road now needed a new name.		2007	Council	Yes
MURRAYS ROAD	This track originally ran through the property first settled by a man named Thomas Murray in the locality of Buffalo.		2006	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
NATHAN LANE	Named in recognition of Dr. Arthur Nathan who was a resident doctor in the Township Toora, setting up his practice in about 1923. He served in France on Marne in 1917 and also served in the Second World War, upon returning from the War he established a residence to care for debilitated and gassed soldiers. His wife Florence also acted as his medical assistant in emergencies. The Nathans were also strongly involved in the Toora branch of the Red Cross, many Sports Clubs, Fire Brigade, Progress Association and the Swimming Pool.	☑	2010	Council	Yes
NAYLOR LANE	Named in recognition of Dr Naylor who established his surgery and residence at the end of this lane in 1902, in the Township of Loch.		2010	Council	Yes
NELSON LANE	Named in recognition of A.E. Nelson, an electrician who lived adjacent.		2004	Council	Yes
NILAN DRIVE	Named in recognition of Tom Nilan who lived to the age of 89 years and was a local builder and bricklayer in Mirboo North. In 1927 he built the five and half ton solid stone and concrete monument to Paul Strzelecki. The road is near the land and cottage where Tom lived.		2000	Council	Yes
NORMAN ROAD	Named in recognition Norman Geary, whose family formerly owned the land.		2000	Council	Yes
NORTON LANE	Named in recognition of the Norton family, well known former residents who lived adjacent.		2004	Council	Yes
OCKENGA CLOSE	Named in recognition of John Ockenga who established the Venus Bay Caravan Park in the early 1970's.		2013	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
OCONNOR ROAD	Named in recognition of Mr Jack O'Connor who was born in Bendigo, and enlisted in World War One on the 14th July 1915, aged 26 years old, with his address listed as residence with Mrs Tobin, Stony Creek, Gippsland, Victoria. He served in the 21st Battalion, 8th Reinforcement and was wounded in action on 12th April 1918, suffering shrapnel wounds to his face and hands, as a result his left eye was removed in surgery. Jack returned to Australia on the 19th October 1918, and went on to settle in Stony Creek. In 1947 Jack died of his war related injuries. Jack known as Bucky will always be remembered as a prominent resident and remarkable person, being associated with the local football club, school committee, tennis club, sports, recreation reserve, hall, band, and clay target shooting.	☑	2011	Council	Yes
OLD WELSHPOOL ROAD	This road was part of the original Welshpool Road - the route taken by both the Granite Tin Miners and the original settlers of Binginwarri and Woorarra as early as the 1880's.		2002	Council	Yes
OSHANNASSY ROAD	Named in recognition of the O'Shannessy family one of the first settlers in the area.		2000	Council	Yes
PARISH LANE	Named after the former St Peter's Parish hall which was situation on land adjacent.		2004	Council	Yes
PATRICK STREET	Named in recognition of the late Patrick O'Neill. The O'Neills and descendants have lived in the Korumburra area for over 70 years.		2007	Council
PERKS STREET	Family name of early residents in Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
PERKS STREET	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
PERN LANE	Named in recognition of Dr Horace Pern MD, who practised and lived adjacent between 1918-1936.		2004	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
PILKINGTON ROAD	Named in recognition of the Pilkington family who originally cleared and farmed the land to the east of this road. The family still farm there today (2015). Along with the Buckland family, they also cleared & formed Evans Road. Pilkington Road was originally called Mackins Road. It was a through road by means of a bridge over Amber Creek. The bridge was washed away, apparently many years ago and wasn't replaced, this lead to the road name change for the west section.		2000	Council	Yes
PLAYER LANE	Family name of early residents from the area.		2007	Council	Yes
RAWLINGS LANE	Named in recognition of the Rawling's family who have been in the area since the late 1890's and owned land along this side of the Township of Loch towards the new South Gippsland Highway. Stan Rawlings was an honored soldier of World War 2. He also ran the local newspaper and general store along with the local mail run.		2010	Council	Yes
REED LANE	Named in recognition of Dr. Reed who was a doctor in Korumburra from 1918 to 1952.		2007	Council	Yes
RICHARDS LANE	Named in recognition of Mr. Jabez Richards who was a prominent citizen of Toora, arriving from Ballarat in 1881 at the age of three years and growing up on the near by farm 'Kewita'. When he was 20, he enlisted in the Army and served two and half years in South Africa during the Boer War. He was wounded in battle and returned home to a hero's welcome. He later became a station agent and helped establish the Township of Toora as one of the major pig markets in the state. He was also known as a generous sponsor for all sports in Toora and served on many local committees.		2010	Council	Yes
RIDGWAY STREET
ROBERTS LANE	Named in recognition of well known hairdresser, Stan Roberts - 1950-80's.		2004	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
ROCCO LANE	Named in memory of a much admired Shire Gardener who lived in that area of Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
SCOUT LANE	Named on account of adjoining Scout Hall.		2004	Council	Yes
SHEPPARD LANE	Named in recognition of Mr. Stanley Sheppard who was prominent in establishing the site of the Township of Toora. The Township of Toora is predominantly on land Sheppard owned and later subdivided. He also gave land to the churches and several other community groups.		2010	Council	Yes
SHIELDS ROAD
SMITHS ROAD	The road was named Smith's Rd after AW Smith and Sons who acquired and cleared farm land and put in the road. They farmed the property for a number of decades whilst running a sawmilling business in Leongatha. Eventually the farm was mostly sold with a small piece retained by AW Smith for some further years where he spelled his horses.			Oral
SMITHS SAWMILL LANE	Named in recognition of Arthur William (Bill) Smith & brothers Bert, George & Roy who devoted their life's work to sawmill & hardware store. This lane runs from Ridgeway Street along the back of Smith's Hardware, and was used by people going in and out of the Sawmill. The Smith family commenced sawmilling in Leongatha in early 1940's.		2005	Council	Yes
SPALDING LANE	In honour of Sister Spalding who conducted the early hospital in Jumbunna Rd, Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
SPARROW LANE	Named in recognition of Keith Sparrow and his family who lived adjacent.		2004	Council	Yes
SPELLER LANE	The lane is at the rear of the old hall, called 'Spellers' Hall. this is where most early public meetings were held in Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
SPERLING LANE	Named in recognition of the Sperling family who have been in the area of Leongatha South and Koonwarra since the early pioneer days.		2010	Council	Yes
SPORTS LANE	This lane is the entry to the Korumburra sporting facilities that runs off King St.		2000	Council	Yes
ST JOSEPHS LANE	This lane is the access lane to St Josephs School Oval in Korumburra and trades people use this lane to access the school for works.		2007	Council	Yes
STANDFIELDS ROAD
STERLING LANE	Named in recognition of the Sterling Clothing Company whom built the current fruit shop in the post war years in the township of Korumburra.		2000	Council	Yes
STOCKYARD LANE	Named on account of the stockyards operated by Gippsland & Northern and Richardson & Leeming up till the 1970's.		2004	Council	Yes
STUCHBERRY ROAD
SUMMERS LANE	Named in recognition of Mr. C. Summers, a long term resident of Mirboo North who owned land next to the lane, and was an active member of the community. Some of his achievements include: • Shire Secretary of the Shire of Mirboo from 1945 - 1953; • Foundation member and first Secretary of the bowling club in 1948; • Deputy Returning Officer for the Division of Gippsland from 1939 - 1959; and • Member of the Mirboo North Agricultural & Pastoral Society for many years.		2009	Council	Yes
SUNNYSIDE ROAD	Sunnyside Road was the original name of the South Gippsland Highway which passes through the locality of Loch.		2006	Council	Yes
SUTHERLAND LANE	Named in recognition of the Sutherlands Butcher Shop in the Township of Welshpool. The lane is directly behind the shops and has locally been known as 'SUTHYS LANE'.		2015	Council	Yes

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
THE PINES LANE	This road runs off in a south-east direction below the Poowong Cemetery, and runs through the land informally known as 'The Pines' established by the Henry family who were early pioneers of Poowong.		2008	Council	Yes
TI TREE ROAD	The area where the road is situated was covered with impenetrable Tea Tree, prior to the clearing of the land for farming.		2010	Council	Yes
TILLY COURT	Named in recognition of the late Otillia (Tilly) Cowland, originally Otillia Simon. Tilly Cowland whom was a well known local identity who lived nearby the road. The land on which the new Court was part of the original Simon Estate. Other road/street names on this land have been named after members or descendants of the Simon family. Those names are Laura Grove, Noel Court and Louise Simon Court.		2004	Council	Yes
VAN DILLEN LANE	Named in recognition of Bill (Billy) Van Dillen, a long term resident and referred to as the "mayor" (of Tarwin Lower).		2006	Council	Yes
WALTERS STREET
WALTERS STREET	Named in recognition of Mr. Lou Walters whom resided in one of the only 2 homes in Buffalo back in 1936. Mr Walters grew vegetables in this road and supplied the town, he was a returned soldier and died during World War II.		2006	Council	Yes
WEBBS LANE	Named in recognition of a local family.		2001	Council	Yes
WEISSER LANE	Family name of early residents of Korumburra.		2007	Council	Yes
WELLS LANE	In honour of Hartley Wells, well known and respected former resident and business owner within Korumburra.		2000	Council	Yes
WILKINSONS ROAD	The Wilkinson family originally lived on the land surrounding this road. Mr Wilkinson was a well-known farmer in the town of Toora.		2008	Council	Yes
WRIGHTS CLOSE	Named in recognition of local identity Bill Wright, a former miner, who came to live in the Township Korumburra in 1969 and was involved in the repair and maintenance of the timber bridges around the shire.		2013	Council	Yes
WYHOON LANE	Family name of early residents.		2007	Council

Place Name	Historical Information	Anzac Related Name	Date First Recorded Year	Source	Endorsed by Council
YEOMANS LANE	Named in recognition of Mr. William Yeomans who arrived in the Township of Toora with his son in 1887. William built the first Hotel in Toora and was a member of the Toora Progress Association. He also played an active role in the separation of the new Shire of South Gippsland from the Shire of Alberton and was soon elected to Council, where he became the third Shire President.		2010	Council	Yes