CHANGE MAKERS

Change Makers is a 10 day intensive community development program run over nine months and is jointly funded by Regional Development Victoria and South Gippsland Shire Council.

The aim of the program is to assist community members to take an idea they have and build it into a viable project. Participants will learn:

- How to engage their community
- How to develop and manage a successful project
- How people in their teams function
- Skills of communicating for successful outcomes
- The components of building sustainability into project design
- How to source, seek and communicate with grants bodies, learn the basics of fundraising and managing the budget
- How to navigate and manage conflict
- Being social - the press, social media and marketing
- How to run a community event to build community support

The program will run on either a Thursday or Friday in different towns to give participants an opportunity to experience different locations in South Gippsland. For more information please contact Dana Hughes on: 5662 9200 or dana.hughes@southgippsland.vic.gov.au
