

Statement from the Mayor re: Acting CEO Appointment

“At its Special (Emergency) Meeting yesterday Council resolved to appoint Mr Bryan Sword to the position of Acting Chief Executive Officer for the South Gippsland Shire Council. The period of this appointment is from 25 June 2019 until no later than 24 June 2020.

“Mr Sword has been working for local governments for 20 years. He has previously worked at the City of Hume, Melbourne City Council and the Shire of Busselton. He holds tertiary qualifications in Environmental Management and Public Health.

“Mr Sword has worked for the South Gippsland Shire for eight years and has been the Director of Development Service for the last five years. He has previously acted as the CEO on a number of occasions over the past five years.

“Councillors are looking forward to working with Mr Sword once he assumes the position,” said Cr Hill.
