South Gippsland Shire Council News Announcing Our Chief Executive Officer

Ms Kerry Ellis has been appointed as South Gippsland Shire Council's new Chief Executive Officer following Council's Special Meeting last week.

Kerry was the stand-out candidate from a field of 46 high-quality applicants.

Kerry comes to the position from her current role as Director of Corporate Services at Victoria's Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission (IBAC).

Kerry also has a high level of local government experience after working in senior positions at City of Greater Bendigo and Knox City Council.

This experience has been rounded out with further positions at City of Melbourne and Bayside City Council.

Kerry will begin her five year contract on 10 March 2020.
