Third edition Community Guide to local health services and supports, July 2023.

Welcome

Welcome to the third edition of the Community Guide to local health services and supports in Bass Coast and South Gippsland. We hope that this guide is able to provide you with a quick reference to localised support services for yourself, family, friends, colleagues or neighbours. The document is readily accessible online at www.basscoast.vic.gov.au and www.southgippsland.vic.gov.au and can either be read online or printed. We thank all the service providers who continue to work hard to support the community and provide the best quality service.

Acknowledgements

We acknowledge Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders as the first Australians and recognise that they have a unique relationship with the land and water.

We acknowledge the work of the South Coast Service Providers Network and thank them for their contribution to this guide.

This guide is intended to provide contact information on a range of support services. For all emergencies please call triple zero. The VicEmergency Hotline (1800 226 226) provides information during and after major incidences in Victoria. The VicEmergency app aligns with the website to provide access to timely emergency information and warnings. The TIS hotline (13 14 50) and National Relay Service (13 37 77) will provide information from the VicEmergency Hotline.
