South Gippsland Shire Council News Adaptable Communities Training registrations open

South Gippsland Shire Council is pleased to announce that registrations are now open for its Adaptable Communities Training.

A series of four workshops will be run across 2021 that will aim to provide organisations with the tools and insights to help them explore what's next in 2021, re-engage with supporters or members, plan projects, and source the funding they need to make their projects happen.

All community members, volunteers and staff from community organisations and groups in South

Gippsland are being encouraged to register for these free workshops.

The first two workshops have been released with Workshop One: Next Steps - Adapting to New Challenges and Opportunities, scheduled for 22 April and Workshop Two: Grant Writing - Are You Grant Ready?, scheduled for 18 May.

A maximum of two participants per organisation applies. If you want more information or are ready to book your spot, head over to Council's website: www.southgippsland.vic.gov.au/adaptable-communities-training
