What is Kindergarten

Kindergartens provide an environment in which children's development is stimulated and encouraged by bachelor qualified early childhood teachers and qualified educators. International and national research shows that the benefits of quality early childhood education programs apply for school and for life.

Kindergarten programs are designed to "encourage children to explore, solve problems, communicate, think, create and construct through a fun combination of child-led and adult-led play-based learning" Victorian Early Years Learning and Development Framework 2009 (VEYLDF).

The VEYLDF outlines the following high expectations for every Victorian child: that they have a strong sense of identity, are connected with and contribute to their world, have a strong sense of wellbeing, are confident and involved learners and are effective communicators.

The Kindergarten program content is developed with a focus on the interests and developmental needs of each child. Under the guidance of the teacher your child will learn to identify, explore and solve problems; become more independent and confident in their abilities; develop self-discipline; use language to communicate feelings, needs and ideas; make friends; make their own choices and decisions; take responsibility for their own belongings; learn how to cooperate with other children; and use their creativity to express ideas and feelings through art, dance and dramatic play.

Most importantly, a Kindergarten program will help your child develop a love of learning and be better prepared to start school. Your child will learn through indoor and outdoor play, based on their interests and ideas; real-life experiences, such as cooking, gardening and investigating the world, plus everyday routines and transitions, such as meal times, rest times and group times.

NB: the terms Kindergarten and preschool are interchangeable.

When should I send my child to Kindergarten?

Research shows that engaging children in high-quality learning experiences benefits all children and their families and can improve a child's learning and development outcomes, emotional wellbeing, their longer-term educational and social outcomes and life experiences. It is vital that children receive these benefits when they are emotionally and socially ready for the experience.

Three-Year-Old Kindergarten

The progressive roll out of State Government subsidised three-year-old kindergarten commenced in South Gippsland in 2020.

This provides children with access to up to 15 hours a week of subsidised kindergarten.

Children are eligible for three-year-old kindergarten if they turn 3 years of age by 30 April in the year they are to attend. Children are eligible for one year only of subsidised three-year-old kindergarten.

Four-Year-Old Kindergarten

Children are eligible for four-year-old kindergarten if they turn 4 years of age by 30 April in the year they are to attend.

Children are eligible for one year only of subsidised four-year-old kindergarten.

Children may be eligible for a second year of four year old kindergarten if they have delays in two areas of development.

Children Born January to April

In line with school starting age, families with children born between January and April will have the choice about which year their child commences kindergarten. This means for three-year-old kindergarten, a child may attend as a younger child, two turning three years old or as an older child, three turning four years old. This then follows on to four-year old kindergarten and Primary School.

It is recommended to consider what age you would like your child to commence Primary school and work backwards. At some kindergartens, they require children to be three years of age prior to commencing kindergarten due to different staff to child ratio's and not having the staff needed to accommodate two-year-olds.

Kindergarten educators, Long Day Care educators, Maternal and Child Health nurses and Pre-School Field Officer can provide valuable information to parents about when to begin the more formal educational journey. Please take the opportunity to visit Kindergarten Open Days to discuss this with a qualified teacher or early childhood educator.

How do I know if my child is ready for Kindergarten?

There are many factors to consider when thinking about sending your child to Kindergarten, including emotional maturity and social confidence.

Questions to ask yourself include:

- Can they separate easily from me?
- Can they be understood by other people?
- Can they express their needs clearly?
- Do they have the stamina to attend and enjoy a full Kindergarten session?

Please speak to a early childhood educator at a Kindergarten, Long Day Care, Maternal and Child Health and Pre-School Field Officer if you are unsure of your child's readiness.

Early Start Kindergarten

Research indicates that early and sustained participation in quality education and care is especially beneficial for vulnerable children and can improve lifelong social, learning and development outcomes.

In recognition of this, the Department of Education and Training provides funding for eligible children to attend a free or low-cost kindergarten program for the two years before school.

Early Start Kindergarten gives eligible children 15 hours of free or low-cost kindergarten a week. To be eligible, your child must be three by 30 April in the year they'll start kindergarten, and:

- your child is Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander
- your family has had contact with any child protection services
- is from an asylum seeker or refugee background

What is the cost of Kindergarten?

For more information visit:

www.education.vic.gov.au/childhood/parents/kindergarten

Families not eligible for the kindergarten fee subsidy will be required to pay an attendance fee, set by each Kindergarten to cover the 'gap' between the Government subsidy and the cost of running the program.

In South Gippsland all Kindergarten programs charge different fees depending on their operating model and costs. Some Kindergartens charge a flat rate per term whilst other Kindergartens who offer before and after Kindergarten care have one or two options of either a flat rate per term or daily rate. These services will be able to give you a quote on the most cost effective option for your family.

Types of Kindergarten Programs

Sessional Kindergarten in a stand-alone kindergarten

Sessional Kindergarten usually refers to a Kindergarten program that operates for specific days and hours each week.

In most instances, the same children attend on the same days.

For example Kindergarten may be Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:00am - 2:00pm each week.

Sessional Kindergarten within a Long Day Care service.

Sessional Kindergarten within a long day care centre usually means the hours of kindergarten are the same each day but families can choose the days they would like to attend. Before and after kindergarten care is also available for those who require this option on one or more days (at an additional cost). For example Kindergarten may operate from 9:00am - 2:00pm each day with children attending three days. For each family the days may be different meaning your child could be with different children on different days. The before and after kindergarten care means that you are able to drop off and pick up after the designated kindergarten times.

Integrated kindergarten and long day care

Integrated Kindergarten usually refers to kindergarten within a long day care facility. The hours are generally longer and charged by the day with a government child care subsidy instead of term fees. For example; Kindergarten hours may be 8:30am - 4:00pm with a qualified educator, before and aftercare is included and you will be charged the daily rate of the centre and be able to claim your child care subsidy.

Kindergarten Central Registration Scheme Guidelines

South Gippsland Shire Council administers a central registration scheme for participating kindergartens in the Shire.

Kindergartens are funded by the State Government through the Department of Education and Training (DET).

Funded Kindergarten in South Gippsland is offered at community Kindergartens and long day care centres. They are managed by either not-for-profit volunteer committees, not-for-profit early years managers and private enterprise.

What is the Central Registration Scheme for Funded Kindergarten?

Through the Central Registration Scheme for Funded Kindergarten, families can identify their three local Kindergartens of choice and participate in the allocation process. This provides a pathway for children to access Kindergartens in their local area and ensures a streamlined, transparent and fair allocation process.

Allocation of Kindergarten places

Each enrolment will nominate three preferences for Kindergarten programs. Children will be allocated to Kindergarten programs in accordance with the South Gippsland Shire Council Enrolment Policy. For example children who have a disability or developmental delay, have qualified for a second year of Funded Kindergarten, are known to Child Protection, and/or have deferred their funded Kindergarten year will receive their first preference. Where demand for a program exceeds the number of places available a waitlist will be created in partnership with Kindergarten service providers.

What can you expect from the Central Registration Scheme?

Council recognises that supporting the healthy development of children has significant long term benefits for building strong, resilient communities.

The Central Registration Scheme for Funded Kindergarten is provided on behalf of participating committee, cluster managed and private operators of Kindergarten service providers in South Gippsland Shire Council.

The scheme aims to:

- Ensure the maximum number of children receive their Kindergarten preference
- Provide a transparent and equitable allocation process
- Support the enrolment and provision of Funded Kindergarten places
- Maintain relevant data to ensure the effective future planning of services

Federal Government for Child Care Providers

Priority of Access - Commonwealth Government

Priority of Access – prioritising vacancies Guidelines for integrated kindergarten and long day care Programs (Appendix 2).

There are no mandatory requirements for filling vacancies, and providers can set their own policies for prioritising who receives a place. However, as vacancies in a service arise, providers are asked to consider prioritising children who are:

- at risk of serious abuse or neglect
- a child of a sole parent who satisfies, or parents who both satisfy, the activity test through paid employment.

This reflects the Australian Government's intention to help families who are most in need, and support the safety and wellbeing of children at risk in accordance with the Framework for Protecting Australia's Children 2009 -2020.

<https://www.education.gov.au/child-care-provider-handbook/other-matters-regarding-enrolment-and-allocation-child-care-places>

Appendix 3 - Priority of Access Three-year-old kindergarten (additional)

Priority of Access criteria for three-year-old kindergarten.

If more eligible children are seeking a place at a kindergarten service than there are places available, children are required to be prioritised based on the following:

Children will be prioritised for their first preference kindergarten based on priorities listed in order below:

1. Children enrolled under Early Start Kindergarten
2. Children who meet one or more of the following Victorian Government Priority of Access Guidelines (see attachment 1) and are residents of South Gippsland Shire
3. Children who are residents of South Gippsland Shire

If demand exceeds capacity zoning will apply:

As per DET school zonings: <https://www.findmyschool.vic.gov.au/> . Children will be prioritised for a place at the kindergarten which is in the same town as their zoned Government School. Exceptions to this DET zoning priority are for children who reside in areas zoned to a school where that town currently does not also have a kindergarten service, specifically Tarwin Lower and Nyora Primary Schools. In this circumstance applicants will be prioritised to their first preference kindergarten on an individual basis.

4. Children who meet one or more of the following Victorian Government Priority of Access Guidelines (see attachment 1) and are non-residents of South Gippsland Shire
5. Children who are non-resident of South Gippsland
