South Gippsland Shire Council News

Our People Podcast launched

South Gippsland Shire Council's 'Our People' podcast series launched on Thursday 1 July.

Each podcast tells the story of a person or couple who call South Gippsland home. Some of the storytellers grew up here before moving away and then returning, while others made a tree or sea change. They are a perfect example of just how diverse South Gippsland is and why we all love living here.

The podcasts have been recorded by local company JetStreamer and captured by a South Gippsland photographer to help put a face to the people behind the stories.

The first podcast features farmers who have chosen to diversify their business – Kim and Jay from Bena. We also have a local artist, sea and tree changers, a historian and a chef to come.

A new podcast will be released each fortnight and will be available via Apple Podcasts and Spotify or on Council's website.
