Great Southern Rail Trail to be extended

The Great Southern Rail Trail is growing again!

With works currently underway to extend the Rail Trail to Nyora, it is already an exciting time for one of our biggest tourism drawcards. This week though, the State Government announced that it will be extended even further – between Welshpool and Alberton.

$6 million in funding has been allocated for the construction of the 21 kilometre trail extension.

Once these new sections are complete, the Great Southern Rail

Trail will span 135 kilometres from Nyora to Yarram, making it one of the longest rail trails in the country.

The project will be coordinated by Wellington Shire Council with South Gippsland Shire Council supporting. It will provide connection between communities and is expected to be popular amongst tourists and a great recreation asset for our community.
