

Things to do in and around the Boo

South Gippsland Shire Council will be running an event to hear from the community of Mirboo North about activities to do around town.

With many people in South Gippsland working outside of the 'normal' 9-to-5 hours such as farmers and shift workers, it can be difficult to be part of organized groups or sporting clubs.

Things to do in and around the Boo is an event run by Council that aims to have a chat with people in Mirboo North and surrounds about the barriers to joining local activities, how some of those barriers can be reduced and what you would like to see offered that isn't currently.

It may not even be a sport that you want to be part of. You may want to be a CFA volunteer, be part of the Ridgeway Revitalisation, the BooFit program, or you might even be new to town and want to know what is available around you. This event is for everyone.

This workshop will be held on:

Tuesday 24 August at Walter J Tuck Reserve, Mirboo North.

It will be run from 7.00pm to 9.00pm with hot food provided. There is no cost to participate.

Things to do around the Boo is part of the wider Shift the Work Life Balance project, you can learn more and see what other events are scheduled at www.southgippsland.vic.gov.au/shift

Quote attributable to South Gippsland Shire Council Social Planning Officer Vicki Bradley:

"After being postponed due to the last Victorian lockdown, the Things to do in and around the Boo event is coming soon. We are so excited to hear from the community over a hot meal about how we can help bring people together. Everyone is welcome, just bring along your ideas."
