Small Grants Program open

South Gippsland Shire Council's Small Grants Program for October opened on Friday 1 October. These grants are available monthly and provide support of up to $1,000. They are accessible for community, volunteer and not-for-profit organisations and are designed to be flexible, minimise burden on volunteers, provide opportunities and increase self-reliance. Applications can be made for a range of different reasons such as sponsorship, prizes, awards, purchase of small equipment or other small projects that fit within the guidelines. A budget, quotes/ estimates and the current balance sheet for the organisation are just a couple of things that are required when submitted an application for this program.
