

Bookings for 'A Day on the Course' now open

Bookings for 'A Day on the Course' are now open. Featuring an impressive line-up of popular Australian artists including Chocolate Starfish, The Chantoozies, Jack Jones, Souly Us, Melbourne Follies and local performers the Invy Horn Jam, this is event not to be missed.

The event will be held at the Stony Creek racecourse on Saturday 19 February. Tickets are on sale now for $15 per person, children under 15 are free. Gates open at 2.30pm and the event closes at 10:30pm.

A market-like set up will be a key feature of the day with a variety of local stallholders already confirmed. A variety of food options will be available as well as wine, beer and other beverages. A Day on the Course is a fully licenced, family-friendly, event.

A Day on the Course is being coordinated by South Gippsland Shire Council with funding support from the Victorian Responsible Gambling Foundation and the Victorian Government's Outdoor Activation Program. The event location was selected to highlight that racecourses can be enjoyed for more than gambling, and the Stony Creek Racecourse is delightful place to spend a relaxing day, listening to live music.

Quotes attributable to South Gippsland Shire Mayor Mohya Davies:

"Planning for 'A Day on the Course' has been underway for many months but unfortunately the date needed to be moved twice already due to COVID restrictions. This time we are feeling confident that the third time will be lucky.

We hope that South Gippsland will support this event. It will be a fantastic opportunity for our community to come together and for families to enjoy a great day of music, food and fun at the Stony Creek Racecourse. Tickets are limited, so please book early."
