South Gippsland Shire Council News

Kindergarten 2024

Council is thrilled to announce that 100 percent of kindergarten applicants for 2024 have successfully secured their first preference placements.

Early childhood learning contributes significantly to a child's cognitive, social, emotional and physical development. The experiences and skills gained during these foundational years serve as building blocks for academic success and personal growth. As well as promoting the healthy development of children, early childhood learning can also play a vital role in identifying development issues early so that families can seek intervention and nurture the long term health and wellbeing of their child.

South Gippsland is pleased that parents and carers in our community are committed to early childhood education and the pivotal role it plays in shaping a child's future.

This year, Council received over 500 kindergarten offers for three and four-year-old kindergarten. This is a great result and is a testament to our community's collective commitment to ensure that each child within the Shire has an educational journey that begins with the best possible foundations. Council would like to emphasise that it is not too late to register for kindergarten in 2024 for children born in 2019 and 2020.

Great Australian Bites

South Gippsland Shire Council is thrilled that Adam Liaw and Poh Ling Yeow have filmed an episode of their program 'Great Australian Bites' at Coal Creek Community Park and Museum.

The new series follows the dynamic duo across the country to discover the cuisine behind Australian culture.

To watch Adam and Poh's adventures in the region, tune in to SBS on Tuesday 22 August or stream the episode on SBS On Demand.
