

1 ARTCUBE

11 AUGUST - 1 SEPTEMBER

TWOONE x South Gippsland youth

An exhibition of artwork made by young people from South Gippsland during TWOONE's workshop at Coal Creek on Sunday 26 July.

1 - 29 SEPTEMBER

South Coast Community Leadership Program

- THE ARTCUBE PROJECT

The Leadership Program Team's project centres around local young people and their connection to the place where they live. The Team will be connecting young participants from Bass Coast and South Gippsland with two local artists, Carla van Laar and Evan Olden. Through creative workshops, participants will explore the question of what community means to them, making artworks that reflect identity, connection, and sense of place.

29 SEPTEMBER - 7 NOVEMBER

2 ARTCUBE

11 AUGUST - 1 SEPTEMBER

Karli Duckett

- THE humankind PROJECT

Now more than ever, humans need places to connect and the opportunity to share and gather wisdom. Members of the community and inquisitive visitors will be invited to step into Karli's ArtCube studio and pull up a chair. Karli will be capturing portraits with her photography, as well as recording conversations. The images and excerpts from conversations will build a progressive exhibition within the Cube.

29 SEPTEMBER - 7 NOVEMBER

Marianne T. RUFF

- Cloud Makers: From Heaven to Halloween

Marianne is a multiskilled creative with eclectic interests driven by curiosity, playful wonderment and deep passions. Come and see her producing artworks based on the theme, "The Cloud Makers: from Heaven to Halloween" during her residency. Marianne proposes to demonstrate anything from sculpting figures and felting to watercolours, acrylics, oils or portraiture as her creative inspirations dictate.

3 ARTCUBE

11 AUGUST - 1 SEPTEMBER

Cathy Hayward

- Pottery

Cathy is a local potter based in Buffalo, specializing in elegant tableware that is custom-made using minimal energy and wastage with recycling as a priority in her sustainable studio. In her ArtCube occupancy Cathy will set up an extensive display of her current work, all available for purchase. She will work on projects using her wheel and tools. Visitors are invited to create their own clay creations, which can be fired for a small fee.

29 SEPTEMBER - 7 NOVEMBER

Rebecca Coulter

- Interlude

Rebecca will exhibit her acrylic paintings and mixed media collage on the ArtCube walls, many of which pay homage to English visionary and artist, William Blake. The space will also function as her temporary studio, and as she creates new works on site, Rebecca invites visitors and passers-by to drop in and say hi, and if they'd like, to spend a few minutes creating their own mini collage artworks, which will be hung alongside her works to contribute to an ever-evolving exhibition.
