Have Your Say: South Gippsland Planning Scheme Review

We are reviewing the South Gippsland Planning Scheme and we want you to share your thoughts on how it can be improved.

The Planning Scheme is a document that sets out the planning policies, objectives, strategies and controls that apply to land use, development and protection of land throughout South Gippsland.

A Planning Scheme Review is a regular process that assesses whether the Planning Scheme is operating as it should and is still relevant to current and future planning needs.
